

Boston to Montreal

Distance: 318 miles Time: 5:40 hours

From Boston, take Interstate 93 north and continue for 60 miles. Follow directions for Interstate 89 northbound and continue for about 200 miles. You will go through Burlington. Exit at route 2, this will take you through Champlain Islands; it's a great scenic drive. After the Islands, take route 11, this will take you to Interstate 87 north. After Border crossing, the highway changes name to Autoroute 15 Nord.

Approaching Montreal, follow directions for Champlain Bridge (Pont). After the bridge follow directions for Autoroute Bonaventure (10) to downtown (centre-ville).

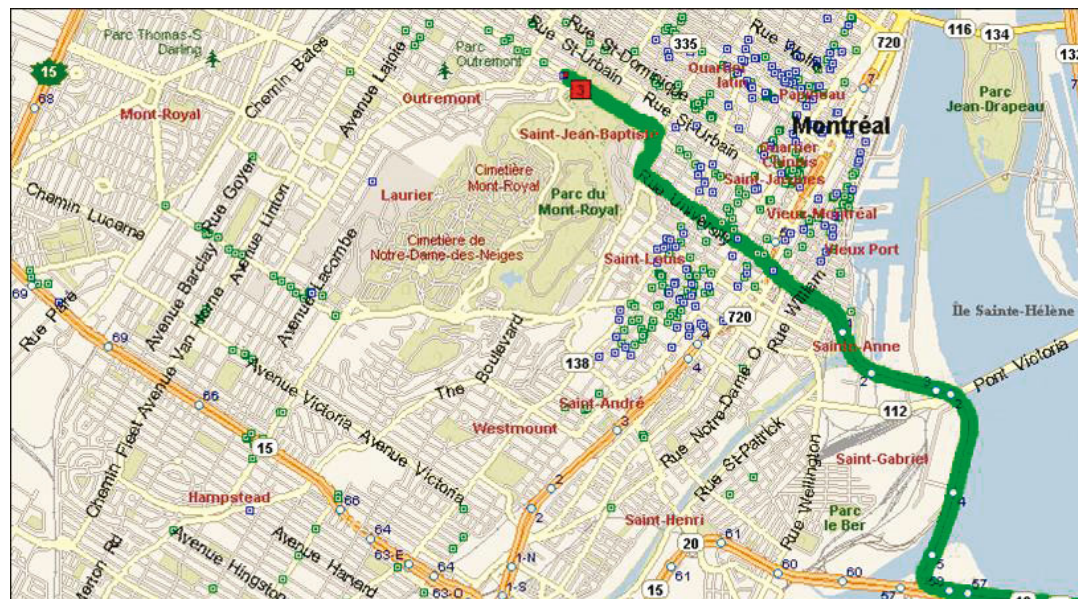

Autoroute Bonaventure becomes rue University, continue on that road, you will cross downtown, almost at the very end of the road, turn right on to Boulevard des Pins and then follow directions for Avenue du Parc Nord.

You will cross large parks on both sides of the street. After crossing Ave du Mont-Royal, you will find us on your left.
